

U.N. International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People

In November 1947, the U. N. voted to establish a Jewish state and an Arab state in Palestine. Only one, Israel, has come into being.

Today millions of Palestinians remain stateless.

Join us and learn about the current situation in Israel and Palestine, listen to the stories of Palestinians, and explore how Canadians can work for a just peace in the region.

Keynote Speakers

Cindy and Craig Corrie

of the Rachel Corrie Foundation for Peace & Justice

Also speaking

Members of the B.C.
Palestinian community

Representative of Independent
Jewish Voices Vancouver

Fraser Valley advocates for Palestinian rights

Cindy and Craig Corrie

Rachel Corrie, 1979–2003.
Human rights activist crushed by an Israeli military bulldozer while she tried to prevent the demolition of a Palestinian home in Gaza.

(photo © Denny Sternstein)

University of the Fraser Valley

Saturday 26 November 2016

9:00 a.m. — 3:00 p.m.

Auditorium (B101), Abbotsford campus

Free and open to the public.

(Bring your own lunch! All food concessions closed on campus!)

Sponsored by the UFV Department of Political Science and the Peace and Conflict Studies Program
Co-sponsors

Independent Jewish
Voices Vancouver

Canadian Friends of Sabeel

The United Network for Justice and Peace in Palestine and Israel

For more information: Facebook “UFV Palestine Conference”